

Discover How To Keep Your Business ALIVE and KICKING

"The Hitman," Steve Brazell, Back by Popular Demand For All New Marketing Seminar

dzine it, Inc., (www.dzineit.net), through its popular EspressoSEO (www.expressoseo.com) program, will be hosting Steve Brazell (<http://www.stevebrazell.com>) for a free seminar on Thursday, February 24, 2011, starting at 6:00 p.m

Steve Brazell, also known as 'The Hitman,' has crafted proven techniques that help businesses get customers to choose their product or service over a competitor's product or service, by making it the first and most obvious choice. That's why they call him 'The Hitman.' Brazell's latest seminar comes on the heels of his new book, entitled, "Clear! How to Keep Your Business Alive and Kicking." (<http://www.clearthebook.com/>)

If the first one blew you away, this one will certainly keep your business alive and kicking. If the book is any indication, we are sure that this new seminar will be more exciting than the last. I was one of the first to pick up Steve's new work of art and I can honestly say that it is a must read.

This second seminar will reveal the secrets that successful businesses use to win, from branding guru Steve Brazell. Brazell is the founder of Hitman, Inc., a Competition Removal™ firm to Fortune 500 companies, start-ups, entrepreneurs and even celebrities.

We are excited to offer this free, rare opportunity to learn, in a small setting, the tools necessary to survive in this ever changing market. This is a real treat for business owners to hear an expert in the field of new economy branding.

Although the seminar is free, Brazell is hoping that those in attendance will consider making a small donation to HeartSpark.org (<http://www.heartspark.org>). 100 percent of the money raised from the seminar will go to HeartSpark.org, which is a charitable organization that helps families in need, through random acts of kindness. There is limited space available for this free seminar. For reservations call 212-989-0813 or online at www.expressoseo.com.
